The Richard Welsh Library at the NewSchool of Architecture and Design

Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA)
www.bea.gov

Information on national and international trade, accounts, industry and economic indicators. The “U.S. Economy at a glance” highlights the most influential economic indicators.

Bureau of Justice Statistics
www.bjs.gov

BJS collects and publishes statistics on all aspects of criminal justice in the U.S. Crimes by type or victim and court systems are covered.

Bureau of Labor Statistics
www.bls.gov

BLS collects information about the U.S. civilian labor force. Statistics include unemployment rates, Consumer Price Index, Payroll Employment Rate, and Import and Export Price Indexes.

Bureau of Transporation Statistics
http://www.rita.dot.gov/bts/

Collects information about all aspects of travel and transportation including personal travel, public transportation and freight. Data covers air, land, and sea and is available by region and mode of travel.

Census Bureau
http://www.census.gov/

Collects information on the population of the United States, including a census completed every ten years. The quick facts and easy stats pages are good places to begin.

http://www.newschoolarch.edu/studentlife/library.htm

March 2014
Department of Homeland Security
www.dhs.gov

Provides information on a variety of topics related to the security of the U.S. including statistics on immigration, maritime information and statistics from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)

Economic Research Service
http://www.ers.usda.gov/

Collects information on agriculture in the U.S. Food safety and prices, commodity markets and the rural economy are included.

Energy Information Administration
www.eia.gov

Statistics on fossil fuels, nuclear power and renewable resources are all included. Offers national information and international indicators. Also provides information on the side effects of energy use (e.g. emissions and waste)

National Agricultural Statistical Service
www.nass.usda.gov/

provides information on every aspect of agriculture. Economics, demographics, commodity stocks, crops, livestock, yields, environmental concerns, land use and education are all included. Also publishes an agricultural census every five years.

National Center for Education Statistics
http://nces.ed.gov/

Collects information about all aspects of education in the United States. Statistics are available at district, municipality, state and national levels.

http://www.newschoolarch.edu/studentlife/library.htm

March 2014
National Center for Health Statistics
http://www.cdc.gov/nchs/

Covers every aspect of health in the U.S. Includes diseases, mortality, exercise, marriage, injury and access to health care, among others.

National Center for Science and Engineering Statistics (NCSES)
www.nsf.gov/statistics/

Statistical information about science and engineering in the U.S. Includes education in science and engineering, personnel characteristics, research and development programs, and funding.

Social Security Administration Office of Research Evaluation and Statistics
http://www.ssa.gov/policy/about/ORES.html

Focuses on U.S. Social Security programs.

Statistical Programs of the United States of America
http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/inforeg_statpolicy

An annual publication listing the 13 principal statistical agency programs in the United States and nearly 100 smaller programs. If one of the main sites doesn’t have the information you are looking for, chances are one of the smaller organizations listed here will.

Statistics of Income

Statistics of income related to all aspects of federal taxation in the U.S. Provides just about every aspect of taxation, covering individual and business taxes by type and topic.

http://www.newschoolarch.edu/studentlife/library.htm

March 2014