CALL FOR ENTRIES 2015

NewSchool of Architecture & Design wants to motivate young international talents eager to undertake an intensive summer experience in California: where design meets innovation, by offering 5 full (100%) scholarships and 10 half (50%) scholarships on tuition only for one of NewSchool’s 2-week Summer Courses running through July-August 2015.

Our two week Summer Courses give creative students the opportunity to learn from experienced professionals in the exciting design district of San Diego. NewSchool campus community benefits from a broad diversity of California’s culture and ideas. San Diego is city rich with architects, designers, graphic designers, animators, and creative minds. Students will have an unequalled opportunity not just to learn, but also to immerse themselves in a vibrant, stimulating creative culture that will be an asset to their education and professional experience.
SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

• 5 scholarships covering the full (100%) tuition fee for one of NewSchool’s 2-week Summer Courses running through July-August 2015, and
• 10 scholarships covering half (50%) of the tuition for one of NewSchool’s 2-week Summer Courses running through July-August 2015.

AUDIENCE

NewSchool’s 2015 Summer Course Scholarship is addressed to anyone with a passion for interior or product design, architecture, media design, animation and game art, or any related field that encourages an inquisitive mind and an attitude for critical thinking and investigation. Participants must have a high school diploma OR be in their senior year and expect to graduate from high school in 2015. All participants must have a minimum age of 16 at the start of the course. All classes are held in English, so you will be required to have a fluent understanding of the English language.

SCHOLARSHIP BRIEF

CALIFORNIA LIFESTYLE & CULTURE: What is California culture? How do the sun, sand, and surf influence design and lifestyle trends? Taking inspiration from the beauty of California’s landscape and the cultural diversity of its residents, applicants must submit a creative project that expresses the essence of California through design (projects to be developed in any tool that the applicant is familiar with: e.g. sketches, illustrations, computer graphics, video, photography, collage, etc.). Project must be submitted in digital format and in English, as it is the language of instruction at NewSchool.

SUBMISSION

Applicants must submit:
• A completed NewSchool Summer Courses 2015 application form
• A creative project based on the guidelines provided above
• Short description in English (max 200 words) of the concept of the project highlighting reasons supporting their choices

DEADLINE

All material must be sent via e-mail (file to be sent in pdf format) to Summer@NewSchoolArch.edu indicating in the subject “2015 Summer Courses Scholarship” no later than April 20th, 2015. will be informed about the results of the scholarship via email by May 4th, 2015.

GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

• The projects sent to NewSchool will not be returned.
• NewSchool is entitled not to award the scholarship if the projects are deemed not to meet the suitable standards defined by the jury. The jury will judge at its own discretion and it is decision is final.
• The 2015 Summer Courses Scholarship cannot be combined with any other economic reduction offered by NewSchool.
• Receiving a scholarship does not guarantee admission to NewSchool. All applicants will have to apply and meet all the admission requirements in order to be admitted.