

CERTIFICATE IN INTERIOR DESIGN

This certificate program is specifically addressed to professionals and students interested in exploring and deepening their knowledge and skills about the design of interior environments. With a strong emphasis on research and programming the spaces to support human activities and well-being, the studio work focuses on the design of complex environments, such as hospitals, hotels, or new typologies of commercial/public spaces. Students can choose one studio class and three lecture/lab classes for a minimum of 15 credits, among the following options.

■ STUDIO CLASS (6 CREDITS, AMONG ONE OF THE FOLLOWING)

■ ID301 INTERIOR DESIGN STUDIO IV

■ ID302 INTERIOR DESIGN STUDIO V

■ ID303 INTERIOR DESIGN STUDIO VI

■ SPECIAL TOPIC SUMMER STUDIO (SUCH AS CALIFORNIA BY DESIGN)

■ LECTURE/LAB CLASSES (9 CREDITS, AMONG ONE OF THE FOLLOWING)

■ ID213 LIGHTING DESIGN (3)

■ ID214 DESIGN OF MATERIALS: RESOURCES AND MATERIALS FOR ID (3)

■ CSC5021 ADVANCED CAD (3)

■ ID313 ENVIRONMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY (3)

■ ID314 RESEARCH: ID METHODS, MATERIALS, AND TECHNOLOGY (3)

■ ID316 FURNITURE DESIGN (3)